Each fund, in detail

LARGE CAP · ON TRACK

Bandhan Nifty 50 Index Fund

> Your large cap fund went up 0.4% this week, though it has fallen 13.1% since January.
>
> Over the last month, it was about the same as the Nifty 50, and about the same as similar funds.
>
> All of this week's rise came from the whole market, which fits the news "Stock Market Cues This Week: CPI, Q2 Earnings, FPI Flows" as big companies reacted to upcoming data.

Your large company fund picked up 0.4% this week. It remains down 13.1% since January after a tougher start to the year. Its results this month were about the same as the market and similar funds. The entire gentle rise matched the broader market step for step. The headline "Stock Market Cues This Week: CPI, Q2 Earnings, FPI Flows" fits as investors looked ahead to company reports. Over the past five years, it has gained an average of 5.8% each year. The fund remains steady with no signs of trouble.
